

HRweb Video Script copy excerpt

Keith Smiley

Video

Voice

FADE IN:

Scene 1

Open with HRweb logo. Fade to various stock photo images of HR professionals looking stressed trying to manage employee paperwork.

CG

HRweb Logo

Cutting the hours spent on employee management paperwork is now possible thanks to a new powerful workforce management solution from Manager Assistant, called HRweb. That's because HRweb eliminates the nightmare of trying to manage your employees with an awkward mix of spreadsheets, word documents, database files and cumbersome email folders.

HRweb is a complete web-based HR system that lets you effectively track and evaluate the behavior, performance and activities of your employees using just one application.

This new software program features an intuitive interface that addresses a wide variety of employee management tasks.

HRweb will help you create professional high-quality performance reviews in minutes.

Appraisals are painless and easy with thousands of pre-written sentences that have passed legal review. Our employee performance evaluation form is flexible and customizable to match your corporate policies.

Scene 2

HR professional sitting at a desk looking at HRweb on his computer. He's obviously impressed.

Fade to various images of Performance Review Module.

CG

- High quality performance reviews in minutes
- Thousands of pre-written sentences have passed legal review